HAROLD "HOBBO" FOSTER: A LIFE REMEMBERED

Mr. Harold Ceyes "Hobo" Foster, activist, was born on Thursday, 8 January 1942. He was the third child of the late Mrs. Hattie Booth Foster and Mr. Charlie Ceyes Foster. He is survived by four children, and they are Ms. Lisa Wiley; Ms. Deidre Farrar; Mr. Reji Farrar; Messrs. Shahid and Ansar Foster and several grandchildren; one great granddaughter; two sisters, Ms. Esphur Foster and Mrs. Charley Foster Norwood; one niece, Ms. Chartie Booth Foster Parrish and several grand nephews and nieces.

He loved being called "Hobo" and he loved talking about everything. Life was his impetus to begin a conversation. "Hobo" lived a full and interesting life. He loved the arts; the Bible; composition; drumming as 1st chair, which he learned at the knees of his beloved mother as she taught him how to play "Ham Bone" using the body parts as the drum (till the end, still substituting his body for the drum) learning; music; nature (particularly Butterflies); ran track at Central (he broke ten seconds); reading; sports and teaching (he taught fellow inmates how to read while incarnated in the United States Penitentiary, Lewisburg in Pennsylvania; he objected to America's involvement in Vietnam.

He wrote many creative and scientific articles for The Arts Council in New Jersey and New York magazines and newspapers. He wrote articles for the Carolina Times and he was the Editor-in-Chief for the Eagle publication at North Carolina Central University. He wrote the lead article for the New York Amsterdam News upon the death of John Coltrane. He was also a leader, as was demonstrated early in his life when he joined and became one of the stars on The Mighty Tigers football team. Later he became spokesperson for the civil rights sit-ins (Chapel Hill 9) when they became the second in the nation to demonstrate for civil rights. Before joining the Mighty Tigers football team, he was Lincoln's statistician who meticulously kept accurate and immaculate data. He, too was the Editor-in-Chief for The Lincoln High School Echo. Lastly, he was a charter member of the Groove Phi Groove Social Fellowship, Inc. at North Carolina Central University formerly North Carolina College in Durham.

A Testimony from Brentton Harrison:

SHAC Dental Clinic as a resource for this community is one of the best things we have. It is a place where adult dental work is done for free! This student-run clinic is for members of the surrounding communities in need of emergent dental services. Its main purpose is to provide for those who are otherwise unable to access dental care; there are no requirements for those to be a patient and this resource is completely free for participants, which is critical in a place like Chapel Hill where wealth can hold you from opportunity. This fall, they will start accepting youth under the age of 18 by appointments. 🙏 I was asked to write about my recent visit and give testimony about the services I received: Two years ago when I went into SHAC for the first time, the lines were long. I didn't consider taking off work as an option because I just couldn't afford to do that. At a certain point with my pain, I sought SHAC as an option. It may take longer to get things done but y'all, it's free. It took me three trips off my second job to have my services complete. The students and attendings were very kind and talked me through everything. While everyone may not share this experience, I'm very grateful for mine. The wait time for services can be a few weeks but they would love to take everyone. They prioritize folks based on emergent dental and are honest about their capacity, however disappointing it may be.

COME VISIT SHAC!

"Man this town is hard to crack. It's called a liberal place, but that's a mirage, man. When you go to get water, all you get is a mouthful of sand."

Spoken by Harold Foster: Northside Community Activist, Lincoln High School Student, and Youth Leader in Chapel Hill's Civil Rights Movement

ASK KEITH

Ms. Keith Edwards is a lifetime resident of McDade St. and a lifelong advocate for the community. Keith is widely known as a fighter for justice and receives calls from neighbors asking her about programs and referrals for help with household and community issues. To submit questions for "Ask Keith," call us at (919) 960-1670 or email at contact@jacksoncenter.info

Because we have welcomed new members into our community and additional folks were not present when we delivered our June newsletter, we were asked to repeat last month's Ask Keith question:

Do you know of any resources in Orange County that offer food support for people in the community during the summer months? Are there any exclusively for children?

We have dedicated this entire issue to resources for you all! Please read page 1 and 2 of the newsletter for more information.

We hope everyone had a safe and fun July 4th!

ARCHIVE TRIVIA

Chapel Hill's first sit-in took place at what site?

Last month's answer: Youth leadership made the civil rights efforts unique in Chapel Hill. Lincoln High School students were the movement leaders and changemakers.

Think you know the answer to this month's archive trivia? Call the Jackson Center anytime after 9am to be our Winner of the Month!

Will YOU be the 2018 Northside News Trivia Champion?

Just like the question found above, we publish community-based trivia questions in our monthly newsletter. Starting in July, we will begin our Northside News Trivia Championship. If you think you know the answer, call the Jackson Center (919) 960-1670 and see if you are correct! How many times you win is up to you. Collect as many buttons as you can and become the Northside News Trivia Champion of the year!

How It Works:

1. The first person to call in with the correct answer to the monthly trivia question will receive a Northside button.
2. In the month of November, we will tally-up the buttons. Whoever has the most buttons will receive the Northside Trivia of the Year trophy at the Christmas/holiday party. In case of a tie, there will be a final trivia question to answer at the Holiday Party!
