

Chapel Hill's Civil Rights Movement

MCJC
COMMUNITY : JUSTICE

Learning Across Generations
Online Lesson Plans

NOTHING WITHOUT OUR HISTORY

Includes lesson plans with student handouts

Meets social studies content and common core standards

Features primary sources from our Oral History Trust

DISRUPT HISTORY & EMPOWER STUDENTS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

Some Words for Teachers from Our Community Educators

Teaching Tolerance Standards for Social Justice: Identity, Diversity, Justice and Action

Key Dates: Chapel Hill Civil Rights History

Key Dates: Orange County Civil Rights History

WARM UPS

Audio Clips

Photo Prompts

LESSON 1

Northside Community Storybooks

Elem 1 - 3

LESSON 2

Northside Community Pillars Mural Project

Elem 1 - 3

LESSON 3

Doing Oral History: Active Listening

Elem, Middle

LESSON 4

With My Mind Stayed on Freedom: The Power of Music and Poetry

*Elem (4-5) &
Middle*

LESSON 5

Digital (and other) Communities

Middle

LESSON 6

Structural Racism

High

PROJECT & ACTIVITY IDEAS FOR MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL

MCC

COMMUNITY : JUSTICE

"Without the past, you have no future."

- Marian Cheek Jackson

512 West Rosemary St • Chapel Hill, NC 27516

• 919-960-1670

contact@jacksoncenter.info • www.jacksoncenter.info

The title of our Learning Across Generations Online Curriculum is based upon a quote from Ms. Esphur Foster, lifelong resident of Northside: "We are nothing without our history." To hear her oral histories as well as more than 200 others, visit the Jackson Center oral history trust on our website: jacksoncenter.info.